

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

KIU PHD PROGRAMME IN INTERDISCIPLINARY UKRAINIAN STUDIES

RESILIENCE, RESTORATION AND TRANSFORMATION

UKRAINE IN A WORLD OF TURMOIL

The KIU Graduate Programme invites early career researchers from various disciplines such as history, cultural studies, political science, sociology, economics, law, conflict studies, or similar fields to apply to our doctoral school in Ukrainian Studies. The programme offers a comprehensive research and learning experience, as well as nine PhD scholarships (with a monthly stipend of €1,300) and six positions for associated doctoral students. The programme will start in April 2025 and continue for three years.

The KIU Graduate Programme is the first Ukrainian Studies doctoral school in Germany – become part of an outstanding interdisciplinary and international research environment and contribute to the development of Ukrainian Studies in Germany!

NEW Deadline: 9 February 2025

Online consultation:
23 January 2025, 3 p.m. CET

For more information, see:

